THE WISDOM OF THE SAINTS

"I believe though I do not comprehend, and I hold by faith what I cannot grasp with the mind."

St. Bernard of Clairvaux

We as a family of faith encourage the full and active participation of all members in Worship of our God, by learning about and sharing our Catholic faith and by developing a loving community of care and concern for one another.

Today's 'Wisdom Of The Saints' Author

St. Bernard of Clairvaux
(c. 1090 – August 11, 1153)

Bernard was born into a knightly family of Burgandy. In 1112 he entered the Cistercian abbey in Citeaux. In 1115 he founded the abbey in Clairveaux where he was abbot until his death. He reformed religious life in the abbey and especially recommended the practice of contemplation. He gave valuable directions for the reform of all levels of hierarchy in the Church. He played an important role in political matters. He was an advisor to popes, kings, and princes. He had strong influence on secular and clerical authorities. In 1138 he contributed to the ending of a schism in the Church.

He took part in many theological controversies. Bernard of Clairvaux was one of the creators of medieval speculative mysticism which developed in the west over the course of the following centuries. Bernard stated that his philosophy was "to know Jesus Crucified". Despite a clear accent on supernatural cognition, Bernard did not completely repudiate the value of the rational factor in man's life. Although Bernard's philosophy shows mysticism's connection with theory, he was also the author of texts with a strictly philosophical character.

Philosophy as Bernard conceived it is not theoretical knowledge, a passive opinion on Christ, but the active and humble attainment of the ability to guide oneself according to the model of Christ. Bernard believed that God is of another nature than all the beings He has created, so man cannot know Him directly by natural cognition, but must have the supernatural help that makes mystical cognition possible.

Healings and miracles began to be ascribed to him, including the restoration of the power of speech to a converted nobleman who was dying so that he could properly confess his sins.

Bernard was canonized on January 18, 1174 by Pope Alexander III, and on July 17, 1830, Pope Pius VII recognized his as a Doctor of the Church.

GOD'S SALVATION
GRACE AND JUSTIFICATION

Justification has been merited for us by the Passion of Christ who offered himself on the cross as a living victim, holy and pleasing to God, and whose blood has become the instrument of atonement for the sins of all men. Justification is conferred in Baptism, the sacrament of faith. It conforms us to the righteousness of God, who makes us inwardly just by the power of His mercy. Its purpose is the glory of God and of Christ, and the gift of eternal life.

Justification establishes cooperation between God's grace and man's freedom. On man's part it is expressed by the assent of faith to the Word of God, which invites him to conversion, and in the cooperation of charity with the prompting of the Holy Spirit who precedes and perseveres his assent.

When God touches man's heart through the illumination of the Holy Spirit, man himself is not inactive while receiving that inspiration, since he could reject it; and yet, without God's grace he cannot by his own free will move himself toward just in God's sight.

Sacristans - Sacristans serve the parish in a very special way by carefully making ready what is required for all liturgical celebrations. Persons who serve in this ministry ensure that all vessels, linens and other items are properly prepared for the liturgy. The time commitment requires 15-30 minutes prior to Mass and 15-30 minutes after Mass once or twice a month.

The Belles of St. Mary of the Rockies

The Belles of St. Mary is a Women's Ministry that provides fellowship, support, spiritual growth, and opportunities for women to discover their gifts and talents.

The Belles seek to glorify God through supporting the Pastor's vision, working with all other parish ministries and expanding our outreach to the community.

All women are welcome. If you are interested in learning more about the Belles' Ministry please feel free to attend one of our monthly meetings on the second Wednesday of each month in the Church's social hall at 2:00PM.

Next meeting Wednesday, June 14th
