WELCOME TO ST. MARY OF THE ROCKIES CATHOLIC CHURCH

Today we gather in the great name of Jesus Christ. In Matthew 18:20, Jesus says, 'For where two or three gather in My name, there am I with them.'

Whether this is your first time here or you have been a part of our family for years, we are glad you are with us today.

St. Joseph—A Patron for Us All

Sacrificial and Selfless—St. Joseph's love was also worship, for he knew that in offering his life for the good of Mary's child, he was serving God. Even though the Holy Family found no welcome in Bethlehem, Joseph's faith moved to hope when he saw the shepherds and kings come to adore the little one God gave him to nurture. Relying on this faith, Joseph helped to instruct Jesus in the Jewish faith, which prepared Him for His own sacrifice of love on Calvary. In meditating on the life and witness of Joseph, we can learn a fundamental truth described by St. Paul: "We know that in everything God works for good with those who love Him, who are called according to His purpose" (Rom 8:28)

A Special Patron—As St. Joseph looked after, formed, guided, and protected Jesus, he also watches over the Church, which is Christ's own body. The events of his life were those same familiar events that we celebrate when we think of the life of Christ: His birth, His circumcision, His presentation in the Temple, the visit of the Magi, the flight into Egypt, when he was found in the Temple. Under St. Joseph's watchful eye, Jesus "grew and became strong, filled with wisdom" (Lk 2:40). Joseph's life, then, can be best understood when considered in light of his relationship with Christ. Quietly, he stays in the background, in service to Christ and a conduit of God's grace. The same should be said of us as well.

As universal patron of the Church, St. Joseph—by his virtue and character—gives us a sure model to follow as we respond to God's call to be saints. He has been commended to the faithful by saints and popes throughout the ages. Our Sunday Visitor (continued in next bulletin)
