Encountering Christ Our

Pope Francis gives us a clear vision for the Jubilee Year of Hope (December 24, 2024-January 6, 2026): "For everyone , may the Jubilee be a moment of gratitude, personal encounter with the Lord Jesus, the 'door' of our salvation, whom the Church is charged to proclaim always, everywhere and to all as 'our hope.'"

Our Gaze Fixed Upon Christ In Prayer In order to be witnesses of hope, we need to be people of deep prayer and to contemplate the face of Christ. St. John Paul II reminds us that, "Our witness, however, would be hopelessly inadequate if we ourselves had not first contemplated His face." The Church of hope must be a Church of prayer. Jesus tells us that we need to abide in Him through prayer if we are to bear fruit: "I am the vine; you are the branches. Whoever abides in Me and I in him, he it is that bears much fruit, for apart from Me you can do nothing." (Jn 15:5) Two key points arise from these words of Jesus. First, only in prayer can we be fruitful in doing the Lord's work. Secondly, and perhaps even more importantly, without prayer, we can literally do nothing in the spiritual life. Without prayer, we become untethered from our anchor of hope. Only prayer can take our gaze away from the things of this world that do not satisfy and allow us to hope in the fullness of life that only comes from God alone. St. John Paul II says, "Prayer can truly change your life. For it turns your attention away from yourself and directs your mind and your heart toward the Lord. If we only look at ourselves, with our limitations and sins, we quickly give way to sadness and discouragement. But if we keep our eyes fixed on the Lord, then our hearts are filled with hope, our minds are washed with the light of truth, and we come to know the fullness of the Gospel with all its promise and life."

PURGATORY

WHAT THE CHURCH TEACHES

"You...must be perfect," Jesus insisted, "as your heavenly Father is perfect" (Mt 5:48). Without such perfect holiness, Scripture says, "no one will see the Lord [in heaven]" (Heb 12:14), because "nothing unclean shall enter it" (Rv 21:27). But how many of us will have become perfect by the time we die, making us ready for heaven?

If we haven't yet arrived at perfect holiness, does God just give up on us when we die? Or will He simply bypass our free wills to make us instantly perfect when we die, without our cooperation? He certainly doesn't operate that way in this life.

Instead, the Catholic Church teaches, after someone has died in friendship with God, the Lord will bring to completion the process of making that person holy, of purifying that soul, which He had already begun in this life. And that process is what we call purgatory.

Why is it God's ultimate intention for us to become perfect? God wants us to live forever in friendship with Him and He Himself is completely holy - without sin of weakness of any kind. To see God face-to-face in heaven, and to know, love, and enjoy Him there fully forever, we must be like Him.

Heaven simply wouldn't be heaven unless those who live there are perfected. If we were to bring along with us the sins and weaknesses we have in this life, heaven would be just as full of troubles as our life on earth—troubles that would last for eternity. Such a fate would be more like hell than heaven. (continued in next bulletin)
