"The most deadly poison of our times is indifference. And this happens although the praise of God should know no limits. Let us strive therefore to praise Him to the greatest extent of our powers."

Saint Maximilian Kolbe

We strive to be the living presence of Jesus Christ in our community life, our worship of God and forming our children and adults in the Catholic Faith. We, as a parish, believe in good stewardship of what God has given us by sharing our gifts of time, talent and treasure with others.

Encountering Christ Our Hope

Pope Francis gave us a clear vision for the Jubilee Year of Hope (December 24, 2024-January 6, 2026): "For everyone, may the Jubilee be a moment of gratitude, personal encounter with the Lord Jesus, the 'door' of our salvation, whom the Church is charged to proclaim always, everywhere and to all as 'our hope.'" (continued from previous bulletins)

Hope in the Presence and Power of the Holy Spirit.

The Year of Hope also invites us to more readily encounter the presence and power of the Holy Spirit that is working in Church, in the world, and through us. "And I will ask the Father and He will give you another Helper, to be with you forever." (Jn 14:15) This same Holy Spirit promised by Christ and powerfully sent on Pentecost is still present and active in the Church today. "The Holy Spirit is indeed the principal agent of the whole of the Church's mission." (St. John Paul II) Therefore, we must open our hearts more deeply to the presence and power of the Holy Spirit and to the grace and gifts that He gives to us through our Baptism and Confirmation. By doing so, we will be confident in Christ's victory and proclaim the joy and hope of Christ to the world. (diocs.org) (continued in future bulletins)

WELCOME NEW PARISHIONERS

Those Catholics living in the area and regularly participating in the Liturgy are asked to register as members of the parish. Simply attending Mass does not make one a registered member. We would like to be able to communicate with you and you will learn about parish events or special notifications by email.

Registration is easy; contact the Parish Office—303-838-2375. Or registration forms can be found in the main vestibule of the church. Just fill it out and drop it into the offertory basket.

PURGATORY

WHAT THE CHURCH TEACHES

In Scripture and Tradition:

The truth about purgatory is affirmed in the Catechism of the Catholic Church (see 1030-1032) and is a defined dogma of the Church, part of the solemn teaching of three ecumenical councils: Lyons II (1274), Florence (1439), and Trent (1545-64). This teaching has its roots in Scripture and ancient tradition, though the word purgatory doesn't appear in Scripture.

Any biblical or historical reference to God's people praying, making sacrifices, or performing other actions on behalf of the dead assumes that a purging process exists after death, and that actions on behalf of the dead can help them through it. Actions on behalf of those who are in hell would be futile, and actions on behalf of those already in heaven would be unnecessary. Consider these actions on behalf of the dead as noted in the following Scriptures: 2 Macabees 12:44-46; Sirach 7:33;

1 Corinthians 15:29-30; 2 Timothy 1:16-18 (apparently, the man being prayed for here is dead).

The ancient Jews prayed and made sacrifices for the dead to help them be purged and forgiven. Early Christians did the same, long before the New Testament books were written or placed in the Canon by the Catholic Church. Some of the oldest liturgies include prayers for the dead, and many of the earliest Christian tombstones bear inscriptions asking for prayers for the person buried there.

Catholics have never lost that belief and the accompanying practices. Scripture simply reflects that ancient, consistent belief and practice through the "hints" of purgatory it provides, though the term itself came into use only later to describe the process Christians had always known to be reality.
