WHO IS THE HOLY SPIRIT

In the course of salvation history, the Holy Spirit kept the sacred authors free from error. He also guided the Hebrew people along the path of salvation. At the appointed time, he set the stage for Jesus' coming and the Redemption of humankind.

The Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus at His baptism when the Father made his Son known. First manifested at the Annunciation and confirmed at Jesus' baptism, the Holy Spirit was active throughout Jesus' life.

Before returning to the Father, Jesus promised to send the Holy Spirit to the Church. This happened at Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit came upon the community of believers. He remains with the Church, keeping her free from error. By this same Holy Spirit, the Church celebrates Christ's redemptive death and glorious resurrection at Mass, the sacraments, and other liturgical actions. The Holy Spirit is also at the center of the Catholic community's prayer life.

We come to better appreciate the work of the Holy Spirit from Scriptures, sacred Tradition, the pope, magisterial teaching, liturgy, prayer, the charisms and ministries of the Church, the signs of missionary life, and the witness of the saints.
