WHO IS THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Holy Spirit is active with the Father and the Son in creating the world. Creation, God's "gift of love for the world" is the work of All three Persons of the Trinity. Divine love brings about our salvation.

Jesus teaches us the workings of the Holy Spirit. The Letter to the Galatians says, "God sent the spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying out, 'Abba! Father! He lets us know that God the Father is a loving, caring, and compassionate God. The Holy Spirit's guidance enables us to appreciate our loving Father. Through this knowledge of faith he kindles in us the fire of love. This begins in our baptism and continues throughout life. Our faith reassures us that through the Holy Spirit the Church will continue to teach, sanctify, and govern the faithful to the end of time. God will never leave us if we profess faith in Jesus as our Lord.
