THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Holy Spirit and Scripture

The Old Testament clearly reveals God as the Father, discloses God the Son in a veiled way and gives us a glimpse of God the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit is the last Divine Person revealed and is revealed by Jesus. He clarifies the developing revelation of the Trinity that occurred through salvation history.

In the course of salvation history, the Holy Spirit kept the sacred authors free from error. He also guided the Hebrew people along the path of salvation. At the appointed time, He set the stage for Jesus' coming and redemption of humankind.

The Holy Spirit descended upon Jesus at His baptism when the Father made His Son known. First manifested at the Annunciation and confirmed at Jesus's baptism, the Holy Spirit was active throughout Jesus' life.

Before returning to the Father, Jesus promised to send the Holy Spirit to the Church. This happened at Pentecost, when the Holy Spirit came upon the community of believers. He remains with the Church, keeping her free from error. By this same Holy Spirit, the Church celebrates Christ's redemptive death and glorious resurrection at Mass, the sacraments, and other liturgical actions. The Holy Spirit is also at the center of the Catholic community's prayer life.

We come to better appreciate the work of the Holy Spirit from Scriptures, sacred Tradition, the pope, magisterial teaching, liturgy, prayer, the charisms and ministries of the Church, the signs of missionary life, and the witness of the saints (see CCC688).

Presentation of Gifts at Mass: Presentation of the water and wine for the Offertory of the Mass is symbolic of the Priesthood of the Laity. If individuals or families would like to bring up the gifts, please sit in the pews to the back of the church. You do not have to be invited to bring up the gifts. Anyone is welcome to bring them to the altar. Please make yourself available for this privilege!

WOULD YOU LIKE TO GO TO CONFESSION, but have not been in awhile or are unsure of what to say?

If you need help, simply ask the priest and he will help you through the steps to make a good confession.

A turtle is crossing the road when he's mugged by two snails. When the police show up, they ask him what happened. The shaken turtle replies, "I don't know. It all happened so fast."

"If I can succeed in saving only a single soul, I can be sure that my own will be saved."

- St. Dominic Savio

We strive to be the living presence of Jesus Christ in our community life, our worship of God and forming our children and adults in the Catholic Faith. We, as a parish, believe in good stewardship of what God has given us by sharing our gifts of time, talent and treasure with others.
