Face of Holiness Today

Desiring to build upon the "means of sanctification already known to us" (110)-for example, the various methods of prayer, the inestimable Sacraments of the Eucharist and Reconciliation, the offering of personal sacrifices, different forms of devotion, spiritual direction—Pope Francis wishes to highlight "five great expressions of love for God and neighbor" (111) that he considers particularly important to achieving sanctity in today's society. They are perseverance, patience and meekness; joy and a sense of humor; boldness and passion; communal living; and constant prayer.

Spiritual Combat

As we seek to live holy lives, the pope reminds us that "the Christian life is a constant battle" (158). He reiterates that the devil is no myth or fantasy, but instead that he is real and is on the prowl to ruin souls. When Jesus teaches us to pray "deliver us from evil" in the Our Father, He "indicates a personal being who assails us. Jesus taught us to ask daily for deliverance from him, lest his power prevail of us" (160).

We need to remain alert and trust that God will aid us in our spiritual battle. In doing so, the pope reiterates the importance to "count on the powerful weapons that the Lord has given us: faith-filled prayer, meditation on the word of God, the celebration of Mass, Eucharistic adoration, sacramental Reconciliation, works of charity, community life, missionary outreach" (162).
